5/23/2017		MS meeting (Student), (Student), a (Former Stu	and	stopped by the EO office with students, and student, but has been recently and plans to be again soon.  concerns about poster placed around campus that included printed out exerts from a Facebook thread. The thread was about the upcoming protest about the readmission of a student following suspension for a sexual assault. One commenter felt that a protest sign sign "this pussy grabs back" was transexclusionary and made the event trans-exclusionary.  disagreed and commented as such on the thread. These comments were included on the signs posted around campus.  raised concern that her name was included on some of the signs. When asked if they felt these signs were posted as discriminatory harassment – based on any protected class – responded no. She felt that the content was about a protected class, no there was no conduct/behavior toward her because of her status in any protected class. As such, Mallory shared that this issue could be addressed by made very sexually explicit comments about in the sexual properties of the posts to the meeting.  Mallory informed the students that this issue may be able to be addressed by EO and scheduled a follow-up meeting. Mallory requested that the student's bring copies of the posts to the meeting.  Mallory provided contact information for University Police and discussed reporting options.

5/23/2017		Mallory checked Symplicity and identified that there is no student enrolled with the name and while there had been a student named previously enrolled, they are not currently enrolled.
5/24/2017	Referred to OSL	OSL follow-up on concerns about the signs posted on campus without approval.
5/25/2017	MS meeting with	No show.
5/25/2017	MS meeting with	Information about EO office and resources available on campus. Informed the is not currently a student.
5/27/2017	UPD contacted	CARE Report
5/30/20107	MS meeting with	Informed the is not currently a student. Because neither are currently students and the exchange took place online, EO does not currently have authority to take action regarding although the on-campus posters were addressed. Discussion centered around ideas of free speech on campus and leaving space for a diversity of ideas. MS agreed to send off-campus resources.
06/09/2017	MS email to	"Thank you again for coming to speak with me last week. I wanted to follow-up and send you contact information for two people that you may find helpful to connect with. One is Dr. Paul Curd at the WCC Counseling Center. He can be reached by telephone at 360-383-3583. The other is Jon Dukes, who works in Prevention and Wellness Services here at Western and said he would be happy to talk with you. He can be reach by email at Jon.Dukes@wwu.edu and by telephone at (360) 650-4689.
